

Release Notes: Private Tournaments

(July 30, 2026)

Highlights

- A new Private Tournaments feature is now available through Legends Access App on compatible Legends devices and the AtGames Leaderboards website.
- Private Tournaments let you create your own invitation-only competitions, challenge friends across up to three supported leaderboard games, and follow the standings throughout the tournament.

Private Tournaments Features Include:

Private Tournament Creation

- Create your own invitation-only tournament.
- Add a tournament name and optional description.
- Select one, two, or three supported leaderboard games.
- Set the tournament start time, end time, and time zone.
- Receive a unique invitation code to share with friends.

Joining Private Tournaments

- Join a tournament using an invitation code shared by another tournament member.
- Invitation codes are not case-sensitive.
- Joined tournaments are automatically linked to your AtGames account.
- Access the same tournaments using your AtGames account on the AtGames Leaderboards website or in Legends Access App.

Private Standings

- Follow live, member-only tournament standings.
- View an Overall ranking calculated across all selected tournament games.
- View separate rankings for each selected game.
- Review tournament status, schedule, and member details.
- Reopen a tournament at any time to view its standings or share the invitation code.

Tournament Management

- Participate in up to three active or upcoming Private Tournaments at one time. This total includes tournaments you joined and tournaments you created.
- Create and manage one active or upcoming tournament at a time.
- Tournament creators can end an active competition before its scheduled end time.
- Existing scores and standings remain available after a tournament ends.

Important: Ending a tournament cannot be undone. Once ended, the competition cannot be reopened and will no longer accept new activity.
